- Easy-to-open fabric flaps support fine motor skills and tactile perception
- With catchy rhymes

CONTENT

What's underneath the towel? And who is hiding inside the scarf? Even very young children can easily open the sturdy fabric flaps and discover familiar motifs behind them: the sun behind the bib or the mouse underneath the scarf. Apart from training children's tactile perception and fine motor skills, this also provides curious little explorers with a first sense of achievement.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Monika Neubacher-Fesser was born in 1959. After studying graphic and design in Kassel she worked for an advertising agency in Hannover. Since the birth of her first child in 1988 she has been working as a free lance illustrator. She also writes books on the subjects of silk painting and hobby and crafts. Monika Neubacher-Fesser lives with her husband and two children in Hannover.
