ABOUT THE SERIES

The WWW series stands out for its playful, enticing way of conveying just the information that kids want to know. Centered on who-what-how questions, the titles in the series explore subjects of great interest to young children. The thousands of questions children ask daily are answered by means of interactive elements, engaging illustrations, and age-appropriate texts. Because the lively illustrations convey so much, the books hold children's interest even without an adult to read the clear, friendly texts. WWW is ideally suited for preschool and kindergarten ages, for children 4 to 7 years old.

CONTENT

It's the great fantasy of many a little girl: to be a princess, just once. But what was daily life in a royal court really like? Did princesses have to go to school, too? What haircuts and jewelry did they wear to a ball? And why did they need a flea trap?

This volume is an invitation to a dazzling and at the same time factually grounded trip into the pompous life of the Baroque era. Special highlight: A removable page with a perforated princess puppet.
