ABOUT THE SERIES

The WWW series stands out for its playful, enticing way of conveying just the information that kids want to know. Centered on who-what-how questions, the titles in the series explore subjects of great interest to young children. The thousands of questions children ask daily are answered by means of interactive elements, engaging illustrations, and age-appropriate texts. Because the lively illustrations convey so much, the books hold children's interest even without an adult to read the clear, friendly texts. WWW is ideally suited for preschool and kindergarten ages, for children 4 to 7 years old.

CONTENT

Already young children pose difficult questions, such as: Where were we, before we were born? What happens after we die? All religions try to give answers to such existential questions.

Every people have their own history, language(s) and religion. This book explains about five of the world's main religions, their services, temples, scriptures and festivities: Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity and Islam. The book's target is to give a neutral and tolerant depiction of these five main religions and ways of believing, avoiding any form of valuation or judgement.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

The illustrator and author Angela Weinhold was born in Geesthacht, Germany in 1955. She studied visual communication in Essen, focusing on book illustration. She has been a freelance illustrator of children's, youth, and school books for more than 20 years. She incorporates her enthusiasm for foreign countries and cultures in her work, and her aim is to encourage children to discover the world with joy and curiosity. She has written numerous books in the WWW series.
