ABOUT THE SERIES

The WWW series stands out for its playful, enticing way of conveying just the information that kids want to know. Centered on who-what-how questions, the titles in the series explore subjects of great interest to young children. The thousands of questions children ask daily are answered by means of interactive elements, engaging illustrations, and age-appropriate texts. Because the lively illustrations convey so much, the books hold children's interest even without an adult to read the clear, friendly texts. WWW is ideally suited for preschool and kindergarten ages, for children 4 to 7 years old.

CONTENT

How do you cross the street safely and what do all these signs mean? Max and his grandmother walk home through all the traffic situations that are important for children to understand. The child can open and close flaps that change the traffic scene and can see what happens in the street. Children are introduced into the world of traffic by Bruno the pilot bear and learn the basic traffic rules while playing.
