ABOUT THE SERIES

The WWW series stands out for its playful, enticing way of conveying just the information that kids want to know. Centered on who-what-how questions, the titles in the series explore subjects of great interest to young children. The thousands of questions children ask daily are answered by means of interactive elements, engaging illustrations, and age-appropriate texts. Because the lively illustrations convey so much, the books hold children's interest even without an adult to read the clear, friendly texts. WWW is ideally suited for preschool and kindergarten ages, for children 4 to 7 years old.

CONTENT

What does a knight's castle look like? Why did knights wear armor? This picture book contains lots of information, answering all the questions the knights' fans, young and old, can think of.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Kyrima Trapp lives in a small house near Münster. Since she was a child, Kyrima has known that she wanted to paint. To follow that dream, she studied graphic arts and design in Münster and has focused on illustrating children's books. She now works as a freelance illustrator for several publishers and paints according to the motto: "I want children to enjoy books."
