Grab, the robber, sets off on a journey, and naturally he would like to start stealing again.

ABOUT THE SERIES

Robber Grab is not particularly bright, but all the stronger for it. He is so strong that his powerful arm muscles often burst the seams of his sleeves, and he can devour a wild boar with just one bite of his mighty jaws. Oh yes, he sure is scary!

CONTENT

This book continues the adventures of the Grab clan as they venture into the big, wide world. With their guinea pig breeding operation and a mobile toilet in their luggage, they climb into the Optimum, a vehicle that can drive, fly and swim. The deserts call, and Grab is just itching to get back to thieving.

THE AUTHOR

Gudrun Pausewang was born in 1928. She spent eleven years teaching in South America, and in 1959 started a career as an author. Her numerous books for children and young adults have made her not only one of the most popular German authors, but have earned her many prizes and awards for her works, including the German Literature Prize for Authors of Books for Young Adults.
