ABOUT THE SERIES

Reading Fitness is a fun and engaging program for children learning to read. Each title includes short texts to read in 10 to 15 minutes, two pages of riddles to deepen understanding, and a colorful poster to track progress. Combining stories, puzzles, and stickers to reward each day's efforts, the Reading Fitness series is a highly motivating way to encourage young readers.

CONTENT

Mia and Paul discover a mouse, and in six short episodes of about 10 minutes each, they follow it all over the school building: from a classroom to the library, from the teacher's lounge to the gymnasium, and eventually outside. A lively chase ensues on the playground, where the mouse finally escapes once and for all. With a foldout reading poster and lots of stickers, learning to read is fun.

THE AUTHOR

Manfred Mai was born in 1949 in a small town in southern Germany. Only after he had finished school did he discover his love of reading, and went back to school to become a teacher. His first writing appeared in 1978 and he has written numerous books since, particularly for beginning readers. Today he is a freelance author and lives in the town where he was born with his wife and two daughters.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Patrick Wirbeleit is an illustrator and comic book artist. His work has been published by numerous German publishers.
