ABOUT THE SERIES

Jojo is a curious and not-so-sleepy sloth who lives in the rainforest with his family. Jojo's unlikely best friends are a toucan named Tamtam and a young jaguar, Suria. Together they experience all kinds of adventures in their fascinating surroundings.

CONTENT

All the animals have been invited to the turtle's 100th birthday party, and Toucan Tamtam and sloth Jojo are planning to attend as well. Unfortunately, Jojo has been "grounded" up in his tree, but Tamtam distracts those who are supposed to watch him, tickles Jojo awake, and the two of them are on their way. Many different animals have come to the party to celebrate together. But just as the party reaches its peak, a snake threatens the birthday guests, and Jojo and his friends jump in to save the day.

THE AUTHOR

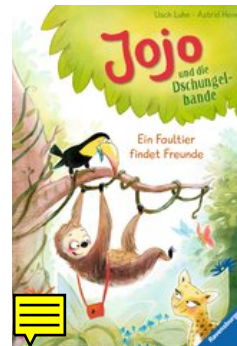

Usch Luhn grew up in Austria. She studied communication studies in Berlin, trained as a screenwriter and film dramaturge, and has many years experience working in radio and children's television. The author has written more than 30 books, many of which have been translated into other languages.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Astrid Henn was born in Aachen. Since graduating from university, she has lived in Hamburg with her family, where she started out working as a designer and illustrator. These days, she only does illustrations – preferably for children's books.
