The second book in a series in which a girl and her griffin must take a stand against evil powers.

CONTENT

After twelve year old Melody just barely escaped the clutches of the Brotherhood of Dragons in the first book in this series, evil does not rest in this title, either. A mysterious stranger takes up residence in the hotel run by Melody's grandmother, and turns out to be an agent of the dragons' fraternity. Melody is not able to stop the Brotherhood of Dragons from capturing her loyal griffin Agravain, or even from kidnapping her friend, Roddy. All hope seems to be lost when she receives help from an unexpected source: Mister Clue from the thrift shop is back and proves himself to be a powerful sorcerer, who may even be a match for the power of the Brotherhood of Dragons.
