CONTENT

Like the award-winning 2016 family film upon which it is based, this novel is a thrilling adventure tale of knights, courage, friendship, tolerance, and self-confidence based on famous South Tyrol legends about King Laurin and his rose garden.

Theodor, son of the mighty King Dietrich, is much too small for his age. In order to prove his worth to his father, Theodor desperately wants to take part in the knights' tournament – and is made fun of and laughed at. Just as Theodor loses hope of ever making his father proud of him, he meets the mysterious dwarf king Laurin, and learns that one doesn't have to be big to accomplish great things. And just in time, because the kingdom is in danger and only Theodor can save it!
