In the first book in a new series of action-packed thrillers, an underdog from Berlin has to fight for his life in Tokyo's underworld in order to survive, and to understand the mystery of his double-agent father.

CONTENT

Max Ritter's life is turned upside down in an instant: at his own mother's funeral, he hinders an attempt to kill a German diplomat and his son, and becomes a target for the terrorists himself. Sixteen-year-old Max has to leave everything behind and start a new life in Japan, where ancient culture and modern technology collide.

For their own protection, Max and other diplomats' children are trained in martial arts and anti-terrorism measures. In a morass of organized crime and international terrorism, he and his new friends must fight for their lives! He also learns that his father, Kai Ritter, long believed to be dead, is not only alive, but apparently in league with the villains.
