Amanda's friend Emma comes to visit, and she secretly takes her along into the fairy world, where a sorting gnome slips into her bag without being noticed. The tiny but terribly strong gnome creates havoc back in the human world and even threatens the big birthday celebration for Emma's grandpa.

- Combines the successful themes of friendship, boarding school and fairy world
- Strong identification figure: funny, genuine, self-confident

ABOUT THE SERIES

The series "Secret Fairy" is a unique combination of the successful themes of friendship, boarding school and fairy world. Amanda is taken in by the fairy boarding school Rosentau. From that point on, she no longer lives only in the human world, but also in the fairy world, where she experiences exciting adventures. A complete adventure is related in each volume, with lots of heart and humor.

CONTENT

Amanda's friend Emma, who has moved to New Zealand, comes for a surprise visit. Her grandfather is turning 70 and there will be a big celebration of his birthday. Amanda secretly takes Emma with her into the fairy world. After they return, they notice that a stowaway has smuggled himself into her handbag: a tiny, incredibly fast and super-strong sorting gnome. He causes a lot of confusion and even threatens the big birthday celebration. In the excitement, though, the gnome is captured, and a wonderful birthday party follows, even including a theater performance.
