ABOUT THE SERIES

The wild Uff lay down for a short nap 66 million years ago, and just woke up again. Now it has all kinds of crazy ideas, and is creating all kinds of chaos for the Peppel family.

CONTENT

In this second book in the Uff series, the Peppel family sets off on a well-deserved holiday. Even before they reach their destination, the furry little prehistoric creature with a big mouth causes all kinds of mishaps, making the Peppels anything but relaxed. Once they arrive at the luxurious resort, a series of thefts take place and Leo becomes a suspect. His family and Uff are determined to catch the real culprit and prove his innocence. Naturally, it's the horrid Professor Othenio Snaida who is causing all the trouble; he still wants to capture Uff and use the prehistoric creature for his own evil purposes.
