ABOUT THE SERIES

For nine-year-old Violet, there is no better place than her Auntie Abigail's flower shop in a small British town. Both of them share a special gift: With the aid of a book of ancient flower recipes that only Violet and her aunt can read, they use flowers to heal and help people. Over the course of the series, Violet is being introduced to the secret flower magic. In each self-contained volume, she solves a major problem, though of course not without a few hiccups. Her friends, twins Jack (Jaqueline) and Zack, everyday life at school and cheeky animals play important roles as well.

CONTENT

Violet finds the world incredibly unfair. While her aunt is on a cruise and her friends are on a class trip, she has to write an essay. Just when Violet thinks her summer is ruined, a man with sky blue eyes appears out of nowhere – her father! Or is he? At first he spoils her and she basks in the attention, but when he steals the magical flower book from her, Violet has to overcome her disappointment and use a little flower magic to get it back.
