ABOUT THE SERIES

The Star Court is a paradise for people and animals – a Noah's Ark, pony farm, adventure playground and circus tent all in one. Here, no one ever gets bored. The animal lovers Lille and Karoline, whirlwind Maja and the cool Felicity make sure of that.

Clever, mischievous and funny, these stories are written by successful author Usch Luhn.

CONTENT

Ever since the mini pig Moses found a hiding place at Star Court, everything there is all topsy turvy. Moses can't live in Snuff's staff forever; he's just creating chaos there. The adults are already on edge because of it. Who can keep Moses under control when the friends have to go back to school again?

Felicity has an inspirational idea: her father Felix, who is a clown, could teach the mini pig a few tricks and maybe even perform with Moses... It turns out that Moses has a real talent for performing. So it is no surprise that Farmer Brims smells a promising "golden goose" in Moses and steals the pig back in a covert action. But he didn't count on resistance from his own team.

In the midst of all this, Felicity's mother shows up. She would like for Felicity to move out of the country to live with her. Now Felicity has a hard decision to make. Will she really leave her father and the Star Court to go live with her mother? That is what she has been longing for, actually. But now, all of a sudden the decision isn't so easy anymore.

Maybe she should keep an eye on her father, who is paying far too much attention to Maja's mother, Elisabeth. Maja could definitely use some help when it comes to sabotaging dates between Felix and Elisabeth. In the midst of all the action, the sassy foursome still finds time to enjoy their holiday. And there are lots of sparks flying between two of the girls and Tim and Tom, the twins next door.
