Clever, mischievous and funny, these stories are written by successful author Usch Luhn.

CONTENT

Summer vacation is almost over, and the sassy four are getting very bored. It is undoubtedly time for an adventure. And so the Haflinger mare is hooked up to the wagon without delay, and the girls are off on a covered-wagon tour. At their first overnight stop they meet some old friends: the neighboring twins Tim and Tom. There you have the perfect team of six to figure out what the strange pair in the igloo tent nearby is up to. The children assume that they plan to steal the top secret ice cream recipes of the farmer's wife, Baerbel.
