This exciting and endearing children's mystery is full of surprising twists and turns, and in the end demonstrates that money alone can't buy happiness.

CONTENT

The Bratwurst Detectives trio includes the rather scatterbrained Clemens, his incredibly clever best friend Leo, and Olivia, a budding writer. Their first case has to do with Mr. Radek, an odd character who wears rubber boots every day, even at the height of summer. Even stranger is that he never leaves home without his rolling suitcase in tow. What could be inside it? The three are determined to shadow Mr. Radek and find out.

THE AUTHOR

Jens Steiner, the son of a Swiss father and a Danish mother, was born in 1975 in Zürich. He studied German and Philosophy, then taught German and was an editor. Today he is an author himself and wouldn't dream of doing anything else.
