ABOUT THE SERIES

This series tells the story of four soccer-crazy boys. They start out playing on the village green, move on to a professional club, and eventually win the Children's World Cup in England. Winning gives them the opportunity to fly to the real World Cup in Brazil, where Noah's father lives - the two have missed each other terribly. After the great journey, the boys experience further adventures at home.

CONTENT

After his divorce, Noah's father has moved back to his home country Brazil. Neither Noah nor his father have enough money to visit each other. Noah and his three best friends are determined to make it to the World Cup in Brazil somehow. So they get to work: After they have demonstrated their skills, the four friends are accepted into a professional soccer team.
