ABOUT THE SERIES

The little bear behaves like every other youngster. He has a lot to learn. And that is why the four titles in this series feature key themes from the everyday life of a toddler in a way that children can understand and relate to. The stories are told in small steps that allow even young children to follow and comprehend them.

Little Bear receives a potty, and quickly notices that he can do all kinds of things with it. After a lot of creative exploring, however, he finds out what its actual purpose is, and in the end, he uses it like a big bear.
