CONTENT

The baby bird has its nest, the dog its house, and the little pig loves mud. This beautiful book with poetic text conveys the powerful message that everyone needs a home, a place they feel comfortable and cared for, including children.

THE AUTHOR

Erwin Grosche is an author, actor and cabaret performer. In addition to his theatrical projects, his voice has become familiar through his work in radio and television. His first children's book was a book of songs called "Die kleinen Krebse" (The Little Crabs), which was published in 1992. Erwin Grosche has already won many awards for his work. Among many distinctions, his books earned Grosche a spot on the short list for Austria's prize for children's and teen literature, as well as a silver medal for best children's book in 2004.
