ABOUT THE SERIES

Interactive, playful board books for very young children incorporate sturdy sliding elements on each page that set multiple things in motion and bring the animals to life.

CONTENT

The young wild animals want to run and play and cuddle. Six sturdy, easily moved sliders bring the pictures to life: the little elephant hides from its mother, for example, and as mama giraffe bends her head down to kiss her baby another giraffe lifts its head. Short, sweet rhyming text complement the five scenes of toddlers' favorite zoo animals.

THE AUTHOR

After completing her training in elementary education, Regina Schwarz studied social pedagogy. It was during this time that she began to write poems. Apart from poetry, she has published numerous picturebooks. Regina Schwarz's goal in writing her own texts is to motivate people to read (aloud) and to inspire listeners to be creative themselves. Schwarz lives in the Rhineland, is married and has three grown sons.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Barbara Jelenkovich was born in Trieste, Italy in 1961. She studied at the Istituto Statale d'Arte di Trieste and at the Accademia di Belle Arti di Venezia. She published her first book in 1986 and since then has illustrated another fifty. Today she lives in Udine with her husband and her son.
