ABOUT THE SERIES

Every title in the series “My Very First Short Stories” contains eleven stories. The short texts are ideal for reading aloud, and there is much to observe and discover in the large-format illustrations.

CONTENT

This board book contains eleven concise stories all about everyday life in preschool, providing motivation and lots of opportunity for parents and children to interact.

This title in the successful “First Short Stories” series is all about preschool. The scene and text on each spread tell a complete story in situations familiar to young children: Being new at preschool; celebrating birthdays at preschool; playing all different things at preschool; taking a nap at preschool... These tales can help feeling comfortable going to preschool, and provide plenty of things for parents and children to talk about.

THE AUTHOR

Frauke Nahrgang was born in 1951 in Stadtallendorf, where she lives today with her husband and two children. She has been working as a primary school teacher since 1976 and enjoys teaching school beginners most of all. At school she began to write texts for beginners, and she has been writing children's books since 1987. Frauke Nahrgang watches children very carefully and is interested in how they make contact, talk and communicate with each other. She transfers these observations strikingly into the stories in her picture books.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Andrea Hebrock was born in Herford, studied visual communication with a focus on graphic design and illustration in Bielefeld and Hamburg. She lives and works as a freelance illustrator in Hamburg. She paints and draws children's and picture books, boardbooks for the little ones, games and much more. Since 1995, her cheerful character heroes have been published and translated by numerous German and international publishers.
