ABOUT THE SERIES

Young children can explore each topic using the many sliders. Funny rhymes invite them to play and discover. On the dictionary page at the end of the book, children can recognise and label the most important terms relating to each topic, promoting their language development.

CONTENT

Tom loves going to kindergarten, where he has many friends to play with. His favourite thing to do is building tall towers with Mila. In addition, everyone has lunch together and plays outside in the playground. Even so, Tom is happy when Daddy comes to pick him up.

THE AUTHOR

Bernd Penners, born in 1958, is an elementary school teacher and is still engaged in this career with great enthusiasm. With his books he would like to make children smile and show that it's a good idea to not always take things super seriously.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Eva Spanjardt, born in Düsseldorf, studied graphic design and afterwards worked in the advertising industry at first. Later on she became tutor for illustration at the college of higher education in Düsseldorf. For many years, she's been working as a freelance illustrator for children's books publishers, - magazines and - TV and she lives in Meerbusch (close to Düsseldorf).
