A lovely ritual to comfort very young children

ABOUT THE SERIES

Parents and children alike will be enthusiastic about the appealing, simplified illustrations and charming texts of the series Edition Piepmatz. The concepts are loving and well-thought-out.

CONTENT

The little animals are sad – they have hurt themselves and need to be comforted, just like small children. Young children aged 18 months and over hear the story of the little rabbit, the whale and the dog and see how quickly things are fine again. Parents will find simple rhymes to use as a first ritual to comfort their little darlings.

Poor thing! says the sparrow.
Blow on it! says the whale.
Band aid please! says the bear.

THE AUTHOR

Sandra Grimm began her career as an editor and is now a freelance author. Her background as a certified teacher offers a sound basis for her books for children and teenagers. She has three young children with whom she can test all her fun ideas.
