ABOUT THE SERIES

The books in this series are based on the popular app “Karl's Castle”, which has been available for iOS and Android devices since 2012. Since then the app has regularly been in first place in the books and children app store category for iPad and iPhone in more than 40 countries, including China, Russia, Brazil, Great Britain and Sweden.

The app has received numerous awards, among them the most coveted award in the German games industry: the 2012 German Developer Award in the category “Best Children's Game” as well as Giga-Mouse 2013 – Best Interactive Ebook, an award from the magazine Eltern family (“Parent Family”) for the best software and online offers for children.

CONTENT

Carl is thrilled – finally he has his first real job! The king's birthday is tomorrow, and he has been entrusted with bringing the birthday cake safely into the bustling Wimmelburg. But when he arrives at the castle, the cake has vanished into thin air, stolen by two cake kleptomaniacs. Carl, NomNom and Willy take up the chase. At the highest pinnacle of the castle, the agitated thieves accidentally drop the cake, and watch in horror as it lands in the middle of the castle courtyard. Everyone is shocked and Carl is incredibly depressed. How can he possibly explain this to the king? But then they get ahold of themselves, and together bake a new cake in the royal kitchens. The king is excited when he sees their work and everyone gets to have a taste of it at the royal banquet table.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

The Berlin-based company Wolkenlenker produces multimedia entertainment for children and families. Founded in 2011, the studio's portfolio includes many prize-winning short films in addition to the internationally successful app Karl's Castle.
